WHO'S COMING?

FRIDAY, SEPTEMBER 14TH, 6:00 - 10:00 PM

6:00 - 7:30 PM

Tin Can Alley kicks off Mill Fest with classic soul, R&B and rock from the 1960's. You'll be entertained with a cool mix of music from Marvin Gaye, James Brown, The Beatles, The Coasters, The Drifters as well as more contemporary artists like Steve Winwood, Delbert McClinton and Steely Dan.

8:00 - 10:00 PM

Big Daddy Mojo has an award-winning blues-rock sound like no other! Soulfulness and energy infuses everything they play. A frequent performer and a hometown favorite all over North Carolina, Big Daddy Mojo provides an electrifying show. You'll stomp your feet and clap your hands to the sound of blues, R&B and rock!

SATURDAY, SEPTEMBER 15TH, 1:00 - 10:30 PM

1:00 - 3:00 PM

Saturday at Mill Fest kicks off with always popular The Happy Ones with Brad Ratledge. Open up the musical blender and stuff it full of awesome songs by Train, Maroon 5, Tom Petty, Little Big Town, The Eagles and then push PLAY! Their modern rock and pop approach is toe-tapping happy fun!

3:30 - 5:30 PM

A local favorite, Exit 180 plays authentic rock, classic and Southern rock along with familiar country songs that you can sing and dance to. Exit 180 has a unique sound using acoustic and electric guitars, keyboards and soaring harmonies. They play a wide range of music appealing to all ages!

6:00 - 8:00 PM

Georgia-born and raised in King, North Carolina, Tiffany Ashton was named "Best Country Artist by the Hollywood Music & Media Awards and a 2018 Nashville Universe Rising Star. Tiffany brings her unique vocals, vulnerable lyrics and intertwines it with her vibrant modern country sound for a show you won't soon forget!

8:30 - 10:30 PM

Rising country star John King headlines the 2018 Mill Fest with original contemporary country songs. You'll be hooked on his raw talent and vocal flair! John released "I Still Pick Up" from his latest project debuting at #5 on Apple Music's Hot Chart with over 1 million streams.
